

BLASE KEARNEY

Blase Kearney is a Senior Trial Attorney at the Neighborhood Defender Service of Detroit.

Prior to NDS, Blase was a Supervising Attorney at the Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia. There, he was a Senior Member of the Forensic Practice Group, which engaged in cutting edge litigation in forensics issues.

Blase has raised and defended Daubert challenges in a variety of forensic areas. He has crossed and directed experts in nearly every forensic discipline. He has conducted more than a dozen CLE trainings on forensics issues, including DNA basics, probabilistic genotyping, firearms and toolmark examination, digital forensics, cell-site location information, drones & spyware, algorithmic decision making, cell-site simulators, and the intersection of emerging digital technologies and the 4th Amendment.